

Kevin Ryan

Vice President, Finance

Kevin Ryan is Vice President of OANDA's finance function, responsible for directing the company's overall financial management including planning, accounting, reporting, treasury and taxation.

Based in Toronto, he has more than 10 years of financial services experience, having previously worked with KPMG, one of the world's leading accounting firms.

Kevin is a Chartered Accountant and holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Wilfrid Laurier University in Canada.